

I have been teaching at Pauline Johnson high school for 25 years, I teach science and the SOAR nutrition class for elite athletes. Way back when....I was a long distance runner in high school and university competed at the national level in x country, 1500 and 3000m . I swim competitively now at the masters level having qualified and competed at the World Masters Championships.